

Background

George has worked in public, private and not for profit sectors focusing on support and development of people: HR for a large power company, Director of a wholefood company, Manager in education and therapeutic group facilitator.

He has a Diploma in therapeutic groupwork which enabled him to work for over ten years in facilitating groups in residential settings. These gave him first hand experience of what heals or inflames conflict.